

Amendments of the delegation of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland to Rules of Procedure of the Interparliamentary Conference on Economic and Financial Governance of the European Union

3. ROLE OF THE PRESIDENCY AND ORGANISATION OF THE MEETINGS

3.6 Side events

~~Apart from the plenary meeting, side events, such as topical debates in smaller groups, working groups or break-out sessions, can be organised in the framework of the Interparliamentary Conference on EFG, including by Parliaments other than the presiding Parliament(s).~~

4. COMPOSITION

4.1 Members

The Interparliamentary Conference on EFG is composed of delegations from the relevant committees of the national Parliaments of the EU Member States and the European Parliament. Members of the national EU Member States Parliaments from and out of the euro area, participate in meetings of the Interparliamentary Conference on EFG on equal terms. The composition and size of delegations shall be determined by each Parliament. The hosting Parliament(s) may, for budgetary or limited facilities reasons, suggest an optimal delegation size.

5. AGENDA

- 5.1 A draft agenda shall be drawn up by the presiding Parliament(s) in close cooperation with the Presidential Troika. The delegations may propose to the presiding Parliament(s) that a specific item is put on or removed from the draft agenda. ~~The decision on the final agenda shall be made by the Interparliamentary Conference on EFG at the beginning of every meeting.~~
- 5.2 The agenda of each meeting shall include matters relating to economic and financial governance of the EU, particularly those matters covered by the TSCG, in line with the scope and role of the Interparliamentary Conference on EFG.
- 5.3 A draft agenda, ~~together with all relevant information on the practical aspects of the forthcoming meeting, such as travel and accommodation arrangements,~~ shall be communicated by the presiding Parliament(s) to all other Parliaments no later than eight weeks prior to each meeting.
- 5.4 A revised agenda with all proposals made by Parliament(s) to a draft agenda shall be communicated by the presiding Parliament(s) to all other Parliaments no later than four weeks prior to each meeting.
- 5.5 To ensure the agenda meets the most current issues, the decision on the final agenda shall be made by the Interparliamentary Conference on EFG at the beginning of every meeting.
